The Fusionist Legislature met with diminished numbers this morning, and Speaker Tallot told a reporter that his house needed protection more than the Bepublicans. The Fusionists show unmistakable signs of nervousness over the state of affairs. Should their Legislature go to Biddeford, it is likely it will find the doors of any half it may engage watthe doors of any half it may engage at the Adjutant-General's office they have information, not yet to be given to the present the stand to fully justify calling out the unshits.

The Governor isstrongly utged to at once disperse the Union Hall Legislature and the Fusion Government, but whether he acts until the lites of next week is doubtful.

The Hepublican authorities assert that if there is civil war, the responsibility rests upon the Fusionists and their discovered treasonable acts.

[TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

AUGUSTA, MP., Jan. 24 — The Fusionists again met in Union Hall today, but their ranks are thin, as many have gone to their homes.

Mr. Dickey officied the following order, which was passed:—That a Committee of 1 from each county be appointed by the House, with such as the Senate may Join, to prepare a memorial to Congress, and an address to the people of this State, fully setting forth all facts relating to the organization of this House and Senate on the first Wednesday of January, and all the facts relating to the choice of Governors, members of the Council, and State officers, and all other facts connected with the Legislature which may be deemed of importance.

Mr. Ingalls said that, in submitting a statement to the court, we should understand that every man of this organization shall remain here until the decision of the court is received. The House then voted to send the questions to the Justices of the Court, and the Senate voted to concur with the House.

A communication was received from the National Greenback Committee of the State of New Hampshire, advising the Fusionists to stand firm to the bitter end, and if need be digit for their rights.

THE REPUBLICANS.

The Republican Senate met and adjourned unt 1-4 P. M., Monday, without tranjourned until 4 P. M., Monday, without transacting any business.

In the House the Committee on Judiciary was ordered to inquire what action, if any, is necessary to prevent any person or persons from falsely pretending to assume the functions and duties of any of the State officers.

Mr. Strout of Portland made an argument in support of a bill, claiming that this is the legal Legislature, and so recognized by the Courts, the people, and even the Fusionists: the bill then assed.

the people, and even the Fusionists; the bill then passed.

Mr. Hutchinson presented the following: Whereas information has been received that a certain person has been engaged in enrolling and endstag men, in a manner and for purposes manufactized by the laws of this State, and whereas such enlistment and organizations tend to a disturbance of the public peace and to disorder and revolution.

Therefore resolved that a joint committee of seven on the part of the House, with such as the Senate may join, be appointed, for investigating the truth of such reports, and to ascertain what action, if any, should be taken, and make report of their doings to the House, said committee to have power to send for persons and papera.

Mr. Hutchinson briefly advocated his re-solve, after which it passed, and the Commitsolve, after which it passen, and the committee was appointed, when the House adjourned till II & M., Monday.

General B. F. Harris has entered upon his duties as State Superintendent of land has discharged all Fusionists.

PARNELL'S VISIT.

PARMELLS VISIT.

A French View of its American and British Aspects.

Faris, Jan 24.—The Temps, commenting on the sympathy shown for Paraell by American dignitarles and Leg slutures, says: "Paraell has evidentic been adroit in selecting the time for his American campaign. The Pres dential election will be hed this year, and the vote of seven million Irishmen is very importent. There is no wish to estrange the Irish, and this is why Paraell is supported. Ho will return to Ireland with the prestige of a great success, and the strength given by a respectable sum of money, and his party will therefore approach the coming elections in especially tavorable circumstances, with an organization all prepared, and with plenty of money."
